CONTENT FOR FAT PERSONS IN HOT WEATHER.—It is a notable fact in criminal statistics that no fat man was ever convicted of the crime of murder. Stout persons are not revengeful; not as a class anything. Fat men are not the victims of passions. Few murderers weigh more than 140 pounds. Seldom has such a phenomenon as a fat house-breaker been paraded at criminal bar. It is your lean, wiry fellow who works with skeleton keys, forces himself through closet windows, which seemingly would scarce suffice for the entrance of a cat; steals, with noiseless step, along the lobby and up the stairs, glides into the chamber, and with husky voice and the exhibition of a huge carving-knife, commands silence on pain of instant death, and delivery of cash and jewels. It is your attenuated thief who insinuates himself under beds, behind counters, dives into tills, or makes prey of articles of commerce arrayed at shop doors. A corpulent burglar is as much out of place and as little to be feared, as was Falstaff at Gadshill—and what policeman ever yet gave chase to a depredator as bulky as a bullock? Corpulency is the outward sign of a good constitution and of inward rectitude and virtue.

A "GOOD THING" ON HORACE GREELEY.—A capital story is told of Horace Greeley. The philosopher, it seemes, writes a most wretched hand, which those unfamiliar with it have the greatest trouble in deciphering. Some time ago Horace became indignant at one of the journalists in his office, and wrote him a note, finding fault and discharging him. The journalist took the matter very coolly, and not long since returned to New York, and met the editor of the Tribune, one of the best natured men in the world at heart, who greeted him cordially, and asked him how he had succeeded. "Oh very well; that note of yours did me a great deal of good, Mr. Greeley."—"Why so?" inquired Mr. G. "If I remember, I censured you in it, and told you you had better leave the office." "So you did; but nobody could read it except me, and having to translate the scrawl, I declared it a letter recommending my capacity, industry and steadyness. No one knew any better, and I obtained all the situations I wanted on your note of dismissal."

A PERT little girl boasted to one of her young friends, that her "father kept a carriage." "Ah, but," was the triumphant reply, "my father drives an omnibus."

MONDAY MORNING, AUG. 20, 1866.

CRIME IN UTAH.

The extremely fawning and sycophantic editor of the Telegraph has been very much occupied of late in whining about the comparative purity of Utahdom contrasted with what he considers the excesses of crime in other places, and has given the most unmistakeable evidence of his character by his continually wallowing in the mire of moral pollution.—The ostensible advocate and champion of Mormon ecclesiasticism, why is it he confines himself less to the rational elucidation of the tenets of his own barbaric faith than to an apparently pleasurable gloating over the moral deformities of his less pretentious neighbors, as though self-reflections in them would justify extenuation in him and his but little more scrupulous coadjutors?

Crime may be rampant in New York and other large cities, and a greater amount of it be ferreted out and brought before the proper tribunals in proportion to the number of inhabitants than in G. S. L. City; but it is no proof it does not exist here as proportionately extensively as there. Even in those cities, money and influence free many a guilty wretch, while the poor culprit without money and friends is forced to succumb, and have his name bandied about by more guilty but unexposed villains, and an ignorant and excited populace, to his life-long shame and detriment. And is it not equally or more so here? Let the records of the past answer.

It is also charged by that delectable beast that all or nearly all of the crime committed in Utah is committed by Gentiles or "regenerators." (A name applied in ridicule to Gentile delinquents here, and sometimes used indiscriminately, but really applicable to the honorable class who are the true and only friends of Utahisms in Utah.)

It requires no great effort of memory to remind us of the Mountain Meadow Massacre—of the murder of a certain Mexican shortly after the settlement of Utah in the southern part of the Territory—of the murder of a certain old man west here, of known Union proclivities, when the Mormon militia went out to stop (!) Johnson's army—of the murder of Sergt. Pike—of the murder of a certain merchant named Bowman—of the murder of a certain Doctor South—of the murder of the Parishes—of the murder of Forbes—of the murder of Jones and his poor old mother—of the murder of a certain wealthy emigrant at Ogden some seven or eight years since, and the accidental (!) drowning of another pushed into the Ogden River some three years since—of the murder of Joseph Morris and John Banks and two women in 1862—of the murder of a soldier in Salt Lake City in 1864—of the attempted murder of Mr. Maloney in 1865—of the murder of Brassfield in 1866—of the floating bodies in the Jordan and dead bodies in the streets during the demoniacal "reformation" (!) of 1856-8—some of which are even charged upon Gentiles; but were wholly the fiendish work of the faithful of this "most peaceable and law-abiding of all communities" during the reign of Utah Mormondom, and where the records are searched almost in vain for any criminal cause.

New York, Cincinnati, Chicago and other places at which the Telegraph fires its paper shots, make no pretentions to apostolic purity; Utah does. She boasts an almost exclusively religious population. But even in those cities the press condemns the high-handed outrages perpetrated, while in Utah, excepting only by the VEDETTE, they are either unnoticed by the press or glossed over as virtuous and approved.

There is, however, one species of bipeds in Utah, whose very frailty is published by the Utah—Mormon press—the Gentiles. It fell to our lot some few days since to see an inebriated soldier arrested on his way to camp. He had got more than two blocks towards where his crime would have been properly punished, when two policemen, either sent after him, or casually seeing him reeling, accosted him in a brutal manner, and forced him back to the lower regions of the City Hall. When on the North-west corner of the third block, he refused to go any further, the two ruffians kicked him and split open his ear. The poor fellow literally roared with pain, and finding resistance useless suffered himself to be taken back, incarcerated and fined. We saw another case: A Mormon was drunk, so drunk that he could not even sit up without propping, laying less than fifty yards from the City Hall. He had attracted quite a crowd around him, when two men, one of them a city official, came up, compassionated him, told him they were his friends, and added if he would go with them, no harm should befall him. He refused; but he was neither struck nor kicked. They raised him by main force and conducted him to a private place in the City Hall, wherein he was kept till sober enough to go to his home. The abused soldier was honored with an item being entered on the criminal docket—the Mormon delinquent was forgotten (!).

With such gullery, all exposed, it is not a difficult matter to make the conspirators seem to appear horribly guilty, and the guilty almost impeccable. Our recently arrived Gentile friends and transient residents will please note these facts in forming their estimate of the two classes composing the population of Utah.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION VEDETTE.]

Philadelphia, Aug. 17.

Extensive preparations are making to have the Convention of Southern Unionists, which meets here in September, an imposing affair, and indications promise a large attendance, although the condition of society in the South has been such as to prevent the holding of local conventions to appoint delegates. Hamilton of Texas and Durant of New Orleans are here; and Hahn and others prominent in the late New Orleans Convention are en route. It is understood that the gentlemen who come from the South will engage in a canvass of the Northern States until the election. Members of the National Union Convention have all gone, either home or to Washington.

Alexander H. Stephens, who arrived after the Convention began, and did not participate in its proceedings, is yet here, and efforts are making to induce him to speak in public.

St. Louis, Aug. 17.

The cholera is decreasing as rapidly as it increased, there being but twelve deaths yesterday. Business is lively and but few have left the city.

Cincinnati, Aug. 17.

Sixty-seven deaths from cholera yesterday.

New York, Aug. 17.

Ten cases and four deaths from cholera in the city to-day, and thirteen cases and four deaths in Brooklyn. The total mortality in Brooklyn in six weeks was 1,819 deaths, including 259 by cholera.

Mayor Hoffman, having vetoed the bill authorizing the construction of elevated railways in Broadway, Greenwich, and other streets, Judge Barnard, to-day, granted an injunction restraining the Common Council from passing a bill over the veto.

The National Union and Democratic Committees meet at Albany next week to call the State Convention and arrange for a joint campaign. Gov. Fenton has requested Senators Morgan and Harris to attend the Convention of Southern Unionists at Philadelphia on the 3d of September, and assure these true and tried friends of the Union, that the Union party in New York fully appreciates their continued self-sacrificing efforts to place the States lately in revolt upon a just and stable basis, that it sympathizes with them and sincerely desires a re-establishment of a loyal self government in those States as soon as consistent with safety and future peace.

Washington, Aug. 17.

Much activity is exhibited by the Indian Department in sending the annuity of Indian goods to the West, and the Treasury is promptly paying all bills.—The Department seems determined that the Indians shall not commence hostilities, with the broken faith of the Government as a pretext. Preparations are being made also to pay annuities early this fall.

The Treasury Department to-day made its first advance to the paymasters since the failure of the Merchants' National Bank. The sum called for was $2,750,000.

A formal interview between the President and the committee of the Philadelphia Convention will occur to-morrow.

Chicago, Aug. 18.

Selections are being made for officers of new regiments in the regular army. But few names are announced; thus far they are, Gen. George A. Custer and Gen. Miles to be Colonels of the Colored Cavalry. Gen. Miles is Commandant of Fortress Monroe.

New Orleans, Aug. 18.

The Military Governor has returned to his headquarters, leaving the City Hall in full occupancy of the city officials; but martial law has not yet been revoked.

Advices from the Rio Grande say the revolution in Matamoras on the 12th resulted in the overthrow of the government of Caravajal without opposition or loss of life, and that Gen. Lew. Wallace with his party of about five hundred American citizens had arrived at Brownsville, preparatory to taking a hand in affairs on behalf of the Liberals.

Advices from the city of Mexico reiterate the former stories of an approaching crisis in imperial affairs, which threaten the downfall of Maximilian.—Revolts have occurred and martial law has been proclaimed in many of the States.

Washington, Aug. 17.

The President has issued a proclamation declaring in brief that, whereas war exists in the Republic of Mexico, aggravated by foreign military intervention; and, whereas the United States is neutral; and, whereas Prince Maximilian, claiming to be the Emperor of Mexico, has published a decree closing Matamoras and other belligerent ports; and, whereas this decree is unsupported by a competent force; therefore, the blockade is null and void as against citizens of the United States; and all claims which shall be made to enforce the same against the government or citizens of the United States shall be disallowed.

Quartz Mining.

The failure of hundreds of petroleum oil companies, who have nothing left them but valueless certificates of stock, should, whilst rebuking the wild spirit of speculation that reigned for a time with respect to "ile," direct the attention of shrewd capitalists to the more legitimate business of mining. The percentage of success has been greater in the latter than in any branch of business, whether commercial, manufacturing or agricultural. The dangers which surround these branches of business and the rocks upon which so many operators in them have split, are better known than are those of mining; yet wherever equal capital, energy and enterprise have been displayed in the latter business, the results have been enormously in its favor. Contrast the small amount of cash capital invested in mining operations with the enormous amounts invested in the shipping and manufacturing interests and behold the results. In the latter thousands of men have failed for large amounts to the few that succeeded, whilst the immense amount of gold and silver bullion flowing from the Pacific slope of the Union testify to the success of mining pursued legitimately. The Gold excitement created a spirit of speculation which caused the attention of unprincipled operators to be directed to paper mining.

The operations of these companies injured the business temporarily, but now that the excitement is over, and persons can look at a rich quartz specimen without imagining they have Aladdin's lamp in their possession, practical capitalists who were thus deterred from engaging in mining investments will direct their attention to the many safe and profitable enterprises that are now languishing for want of capital. Such fine opportunities for profitable investment have never existed heretofore, as most of the wild-cat operators have been forced to quit the field. Without endeavoring to make an invidious distinction, we may say that the silver, gold and copper mines of California, Central Nevada, Colorado and Arizona offer fields that are unsurpassed in any other section of the globe for judicious investments in quartz.—American Mining Index.

From California.

[From the Enterprise.]

San Francisco, Aug. 12.

General Raisa, late of Company B, Seventh California Volunteers, was severely and it is feared fatally stabbed in a Barbary Coast saloon before daylight this morning.

William Sheppard was caught dividing the proceeds of a highway robbery with his associates, two old convicts, on Pacific street this morning.

The subscription toward paying the national debt of Italy in this city now amounts to $14,525. It is to be run into bars, stamped "The Italians of California to the Consozio Nazionale," and shipped on the next steamer to Italy.

There is an immense turn out of Pioneers, firemen and citizens at the funeral of the late Captain James O'Callaghan, of San Mateo, which is now taking place from St. Mary's Cathedral.

The new San Francisco Pilot bill, which is now a law, has been received from Washington. It exempts steamers of any class from payment of pilot charges.

President Juarez writes to Consul Godoy, July 7th, from Chihuahua, that a force was leaving on that day for Parral. Advices from Durango state that Bazaine's expedition appeared to be abandoned, and the French were preparing to evacuate the place—their efforts to recruit a force of native Mexicans to garrison the town on their departure meeting with such poor success. Those of the inhabitants who had compromised themselves during French occupation were leaving for the City of Mexico for protection.

J. W. Walsh, publisher of the San Francisco "Varieties," was sentenced, August 11th, to six months in the County Jail for libel.

Growth of Helena, M. T.

The Republican of the 11th, in speaking of the rapid progress of Helena says:

Less than two years ago there was not a single cabin in Last Chance Gulch, where there are to-day probably not less than one thousand buildings and eight thousand people. There are two houses devoted exclusively to the auction and commission business, although the auction business is carried on by several livery stables, corral keepers and clothing stores. There are 4 assayers, 7 public boarding houses, (besides innumerable private ones,) 6 barber shops, 3 breweries, 11 blacksmith shops, 8 butcher shops, 5 banking houses, 6 bakeries, 1 cracker bakery, 1 bowling alley, 2 billiard halls, 15 clothing stores (exclusively), 4 carpenters and contractors, 1 cider factory, 5 dentists, 3 dress-makers, 7 druggists, 5 dry-good stores, 3 draymen, 5 express offices, 2 furniture makers, 101 grocers and dealers in general merchandise, 2 gunsmiths, 7 wholesale grocers, 3 hotels, 6 jewelers, and watchmakers, 1 laundry, 10 lawyers, 7 livery and sale stables, 2 lager beer cellars, 3 lumber yards, 3 lodging houses, 1 novelty store, 3 paint shops, 16 physicians, 3 photographers, 1 pawnbroker, 1 female physician, 3 printing offices, 26 dram-shops, 12 restaurants, 7 shoemakers, 5 stationers, 1 sailmaker, 1 soda-water manufactory, 2 saddlers, 6 tobacconists, 5 tin and hardware stores, 2 theatres, 3 tailors, 1 undertaker, 2 watchmakers exclusively.

From Idaho.

Yesterday we had the pleasure of meeting Mr. E. D. Sayrs, of Centerville, Idaho, who represents his district in the Territorial Assembly. He reports that they have passed through a very exciting canvass in Idaho, but he believes that Holbrook, the Democratic candidate, is elected for delegate to Congress. In Oneida County the "People's" ticket is elected by an average majority of about 50. By the success of this ticket, Hon. M. A. Carter is elected Councilman, Col. Henry Ohle Assemblyman, Geo. Ward Sheriff, Capt. J. C. Morrill Treasurer, and Capt. White Recorder. Mr. S. reports that five or six hundred miners are about leaving Idaho to spend the winter in Salt Lake. The Chinamen are flocking into the Territory from every quarter, and they have already about three thousand of the dusky Asiatics within the limits of Idaho.

Indian Troubles.

August 19th, 1866.

Editors Vedette:—At nine A. M. to-day, about 50 Indians commenced an attack on our Deer Creek Station about 90 miles west of Laramie. Two white men only at the station, who are supposed to have escaped; the station has been burned and the wire torn down. The operator from Platte Bridge, 36 miles west of Deer Creek, has gone down to the break with an escort of 30 soldiers. Think we will be working to-morrow, unless the Indians are found to be very strong.

A. C. BARNEY.

IDAHO ELECTION.—We have received the following returns from the Idaho election:

Boise City, Aug. 14, '66.

Editors Vedette:—The election yesterday passed off quietly.

Boise City Precinct:

Farnum (Democrat).....203

Kinkaid (Union).....202

No other precincts heard from.

WM. J. YOUNG.

We learn that Oneida gives Kinkaid a large majority.

From Montana.

The Helena Republican of the 11th says it is reported that Ft. Benton, Sun River and the Judith have been decided upon as stations for the U. S. troops in Montana.... The advance of the Minnesota immigration has reached Sun River.... A new gulch, which is reported as paying big, has been discovered in Jefferson county, about eighty or ninety miles from Helena.... Joe Follingsby was accidentally shot by his companion, Geo. Musgrave, while out prospecting about forty miles from Blackfoot.

INFORMATION WANTED.—We have a letter from the mother of Amyron E. Bidgood, who says she has not heard anything from him since last March, and is nearly distracted in consequence.—He belonged to Company "A" or "B," First Michigan Cavalry, and is supposed to be either here or in Salt Lake. Any information of him sent to this office will be transmitted. Salt Lake papers please copy.—Denver News, Aug. 10th.

The Daily Union Vedette

Local and Miscellaneous.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The VEDETTE is the pioneer daily newspaper of Utah. Its immense circulation in every mining camp and city of Montana and Idaho, (to which it gives the telegraphic despatches a whole week ahead of the Pacific papers,) makes it the most advantageous medium for advertising in these four central Territories.

C. J. GOLDRICK, traveling solicitor, for VEDETTE subscriptions and advertisements, through the Pacific States and Territories.

We have been informed that the new stage line, which A. J. Oliver & Co. were about establishing between this city and Montana, has been purchased by the Holladay Company.

At the earliest opportunity, as our space will allow, we shall commence publishing a series of sketches by Goldrick, entitled "From Salt Lake to San Francisco." We know they will afford an interest to a large proportion of our patrons.

ATTENTION is called to the advertisement of the Miners' Store, owned by J. H. McGrath, where Miners, Farmers, Travelers, and every one can always find a full assortment of goods at the most reasonable prices.

THE funeral services of John Partridge, whose body was found in the Jordan a few days since, took place yesterday, under the direction of the Odd Fellows, of which fraternity the deceased was a member. His remains were deposited in the Camp Douglas Cemetery.

AT some of the street crossings in this city culverts or paved water courses are sadly needed to ensure safety to those who have occasion to drive after dark. It is all very nice to have our streams of running water on every street; they constitute the chief charm of our mainly city, and are the delight of both residents and visitors, but it's not quite so funny to have your buggy smashed, when two miles from home, in some of the neck break holes that the water digs in the soft soil of some sections of this city.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—This evening our citizens will have the opportunity of witnessing some splendid views of California and Nevada Scenery, Battle Pictures, etc., produced by Wormer's Stereoscopticon, at the above place of amusement. This exhibition is highly spoken of, and we hope its managers will be greeted by a crowded house to-night. The box office will be open from 10 o'clock, a. m. until 4 p. m. No extra charge for reserved seats.

INTERNATIONAL HOTEL, VIRGINIA, NEV.—Travelers to the west will notice new advertisement of the International Hotel, of Virginia, Nevada State. It is the largest brick hotel, and the most noted, in the Silver State. J. Swift, Esq., the proprietor, is a gentleman and a good landlord—which is saying sufficient for a page of "puffing."

MILITARY.—Yesterday we noticed a detail of the 18th U. S. Infantry on the streets, and we must say that we have seldom seen a body of soldiers that presented a more neat and military appearance. This city has nearly always been favored with the best and most orderly troops to be found in any section of the country, who have afforded but little ground for the constant flings and insinuations which they, in common with every one else identified with the Government, have been favored by the Daily Telegraph.

THE Telegraph of yesterday morning has a startling item under the heading of "Police," in which it discourses very glibly of "pistols and coffee," "force of arms," etc., etc. As near as we can find out the Police—those faithful (?) guardians of the public peace—have not troubled themselves very much about the affair. The facts, as they come to us from parties who know, are these: A week ago yesterday a Mrs. Marshall left town in company with a Missourian named Grant. Her husband followed, and on Friday brought her back to this city. About half past nine that evening Marshall and one of his friends met a Mr. G. W. Ross on Main street, opposite the VEDETTE office, and without any explanation snapped a pistol in his face, and then struck him over the head, when his companion fired at Ross twice, without doing any damage. Ross all the while protesting that he was unarmed. This is all the duel there was about the affair.

The Indian War.

In another column will be found an account of the capture of Deer Creek.—This is a one company timber fort ninety miles west of Laramie, on the Platte river, at the junction of the old South Pass and the new Montana Powder River roads. The fort, which was unoccupied, was destroyed, and the telegraph line cut. The office, which was outside the fort, was not injured. The operator and his assistant took to the hills, and have not been found yet, but it is believed they are all right.

Friday evening the same party of Indians attacked a train of Mormon emigrants at Wagonbound, (five miles this side of La Bonta) and captured ninety head of stock, besides killing several head, but did not succeed in hurting any of the emigrants.

WHAT is the difference between a tunnel and a speaking trumpet? One is hollowed out and the other is hollowed in.

THERE are so few beaux at Long Branch this summer, that it is called a She-shore watering place.

A Cow died in Maine and a piece of hoop skirt was found in her throat. It is supposed that she swallowed the milk-maid.

THE defence of a man in Pennsylvania, sued for $25,000 for breach of promis, is that the young lady weighs 285 pounds, and it is coming extra weight.

A YOUNG LADY in Arkansas is charged with "putting on airs" because she refused to go to a ball barefoot.

TEXAS HUMOR.—A Texas journal, denouncing the Civil Rights bill, and the Texas papers that approve it, says: "We've buried the hatchet—yes, and we've eaten dirt enough to cover it forever; but, as some emphatic writer says, 'd——d if we have much respect for the man who pretends that he likes it."

HOOP SKIRTS, LIKE GUN BARRELS, are not dangerous unless they have something in them; but when the former are charged, powdered, wadded, and waterfall capped, they should be handled with the greatest caution. In many instances it is dangerous even to look at them.
